

Submission and Judging

Process

- ✚ As the teacher/mentor, you will be required to submit your project using the Design for Change online platform which can be found on the DFC USA website.

Deadline

- ✚ The last day to submit your entry is May 15, 2014.
- ✚ The winning team will be announced on May 30, 2014.
- ✚ The winning team will have the opportunity to present their project in India at the Be The Change Conference in September 2014. Due to limited funding, we will be able to take only 5 members of the winning team, including chaperones.
- ✚ Design for Change USA is not responsible for obtaining passports, VISA's and vaccinations required for travel (however, we will assist in the process of preparing all the winning team's travel documents).

Structure

- ✚ We request that your submission be broken up into the four Design for Change stages:

Feel, Imagine, Do, Share

Format and Standards

- ✚ We are able to accept your submission in the following formats and are happy to accommodate others upon request:

PowerPoint, Video, PDF, Word Document

Important Information

- + Be sure to document your project at every stage, this footage/documentation will be vital when constructing your final presentation
- + Please remember, the goal of your presentation is to narrate the story of your class project as you ventured through each stage of the curriculum e.g., highlight key events and struggles

If you have any difficulty with the submission platform, please notify us at info@designforchange.us
